

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE
PROGRAMME SPECIFIC OUTCOMES

A Chemistry graduate will be able to...

1. Design, and execute experiments in Chemistry which demonstrate a good understanding of chemical principles.
2. Apply the rules of nomenclature and give proper names to new and existing compounds.
3. Relate the principles of Chemistry to the real world
4. Suggest and implement innovative solutions to problems in areas such as wastemanagement, pollution, depletion of resources etc.
